The Acorn

Letter from the HOA

There have been several instances of vandalism at the playground over the past few months. Please be aware that the rules for the playground area need to be upheld. Several of these rules are being ignored and the HOA will be taking action if these violations continue.

PLAYGROUND RULES

- No Glass Containers
- No Dogs
- Pick Up Your Trash
- No Swinging on the Gates
- No Trespassing After Dark (Police will be called for trespassers)
- Leave the Swing Chains at the Set Length
- No Vandalism of Playground Equipment
- No Graffiti on Playground Equipment
- No Skateboards or Bicycles allowed inside the fence

The playground is a place for children and families to have fun, please do not spoil that. These are just some of the rules, the rest are common sense. If you think that something you are doing is inappropriate, then it probably is, so do not do it. We want everyone to enjoy the playground, so please have fun and be safe.

The Tennis Courts are for playing Tennis, please refrain from using them for other activities. No trespassing if you do not have a tennis membership

The Recreation Committee

3rd Annual LOR Golf Tournament

We have had to make a scheduling change for the Golf Tournament. Due to a clerical error, Oak Hollow is not available. So we will be moving to the Meadowlands. The new date is Sunday, September 21st. Lunch (provided by Golden Corral) will start at 12:00. At 1:30 we will have a shot-gun start. The format will be 4 Man Captains Choice. The entry fee is $280 per team (Mulligans included). Cash prizes for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place will be awarded. There will also be prizes for closet to the pin, longest drive and straight drive. If you would like to be a hole sponsor, prices start at $100. We will be working with and donating part of the proceeds to the Ledford High School Golf Team

For more information, please contact Jason Flynt at 883-7926. Team and Sponsorship forms can be found online at www.laureloakranch.com. We welcome all teams and anyone who is interested in volunteering for the day. We look forward to seeing you on the course.
